Do you like to read? Do you like to write? Are you looking for an English class that is challenging and fun? Try Creative Writing! You will explore the genres of fiction, poetry, drama, and creative nonfiction.

Here is what a few students said about Creative Writing last year:

This class will challenge and push you to look at writing differently. As someone who doesn't like writing, I enjoyed this class as I grew as a writer. – Antonio DeLaO

I would recommend this class because it was very fun, and I felt that I could express my creativity freely. – Breanne Hicks

I recommend this course because not only did it help me with my writing skills, but it also helped me with my confidence in my work. – Calli Frisinger

10/10 would recommend. Take this class if you want to express yourself through writing. Go Cougs. – Olivia Barton

Creative writing is a fantastic option for students that are excited by learning new things and exploring art in its various forms. You will love this class! – Tatyana Emery

It's a good class if you aspire to be a writer. If you don't know what you're going to do after school, take the class. It may open doors. – Thomas Walters

One of the warmest, most accepting class environments I have ever been in. – Jacob Thomas

I gained valuable lessons about writing that I could incorporate into my work, I expanded my knowledge of writing genres, and I was inspired to write more. You should take this class—you will see things differently and enjoy it. – Aina Zabinski

I just wanted to keep writing! – Ryley Petoff

It may seem difficult at first, but trust me, it's fun. – Collin Pearce

Thoroughly enjoyable. Some days you may not see improvement, but when you do, it is a wonderful feeling of accomplishment. – Skye Southern
